Background and experience

Prior to her current role (which commenced in January 2018), Lucy spent three years at TISE as a Listings and Technical Manager, reviewing listing applications and providing assistance and support to the Listing and Membership Committee in maintaining and updating the Listing Rules.

Lucy has extensive experience in the areas of corporate and structured finance, having previously worked on a wide range of structured finance transactions and more general corporate and commercial work, including listings and corporate restructurings. She also undertook a secondment at Clifford Chance LLP in its Debt Capital Markets practice.

Lucy began her legal career with Ogier in 2001 and subsequently trained with the firm. She was admitted as a solicitor of England and Wales in 2006 and the British Virgin Islands (not practising) in 2007.

Admitted in:

2006 - England and Wales

2007 - British Virgin Islands (non practising)
