

Ogier is excited to announce its participation in IPEM Cannes 2025, taking place from January 28 to 30 at the Palais des Festivals. This premier event gathers key decision-makers from the private equity sector, providing a unique platform for networking and meaningful exchanges.

Bertrand Geradin, practice partner, Ogier Luxembourg and Delphine Gomes, counsel, Banking and Finance will be attending the conference. They are eager to connect with industry peers and explore new opportunities in the evolving landscape of private markets.

If you would like connect at the event, reach out to Bertrand and Delphine directly. Join us in Cannes for insightful discussions and transformative business connections!