

Kate Noble

Areas of expertise

Background and experience

Kate has more than 13 years' experience in financial services including 5 years in the offshore world. Her last role before joining Ogier in March 2018 was in Jersey as Head of Personal and Business Banking Operations at RBS International.

As Head of Operations Kate is responsible for driving service led process improvements; providing best in class operational efficiencies that meet our client needs.

Additionally Kate manages Ogiers global premises strategy

Kate is experienced in Project Management, Lean Six Sigma and operations management.