

Offshore Disputes Week brings together 100+ international experts from around the world to debate and discuss the growth of disputes in key offshore jurisdictions.

Ogier partner Christopher Levers and managing associate Farrah Sbaiti will be attending. Please contact them using the details below should you wish to connect at the conference.