Background and experience

Graeme began his career in Scotland, focusing on corporate and commercial work (in particular, M&A and corporate governance). Graeme joined Ogier's Investment Funds and Corporate team in February 2019 and now specialises in the establishment and ongoing operation of Cayman Islands investment vehicles, along with a range of corporate matters. He is also a member of Ogier's multi-disciplinary Private Equity team and is experienced in all aspects of formation, capital raising and operation of private equity vehicles.

Prior to qualifying as a corporate lawyer, Graeme owned and operated a small IT-focused business in Scotland. He retains a particular affinity with, and interest in, the digital sector.

Graeme received a Bachelor of Laws in 2012 and a Post-Graduate Diploma in Professional Legal Practice in 2013, both from the University of Strathclyde, Glasgow. He is a member of the Cayman Islands Legal Practitioners Association and the Law Society of Scotland.

Recognition

"Leading associates"

Legal 500 Caribbean, 2025

"Without exception, Graeme handled everything timely and thoroughly ... he did not let me down. In fact, he exceeded expectations. I find that Graeme's service level and knowledge far surpass that of his peers [at other law firms]"

Client feedback (Major US Asset Manager), 2020

"Catherine Collins and Graeme Loarridge are two associates to watch in the funds sector, an area in which their advice is highly appreciated by clients."
