Background and experience

Andrea has over 25 years' experience in the Jersey offshore finance sector and holds a BA (Hons) Law and Economics degree.

Before joining Ogier in 2019, Andrea was part of a global administration provider's private wealth team where she had day-to-day responsibility for managing a wide range of client relationships together with her team. She was appointed to the board of certain client companies and worked closely with senior colleagues and intermediaries both locally and internationally to ensure that the client's needs were proactively met.

Andrea is fluent in English and French.
