Background and experience

Prior to joining Ogier Global in 2021, Adam was a manager at BNY Mellon (Cayman) and Intertrust (Cayman) following its acquisition in 2016 of Elian Fiduciary Services (Cayman) Limited. At both institutions, Adam specialised in providing fiduciary oversight and corporate governance to a portfolio of unit trusts and corporate vehicles with a combined AUM in excess of $200 billion.

Adam began his career with the AIB group in Dublin, Ireland and holds an LLB (Hons) from the University of Wales.

In addition to his role at Ogier Global, Adam is an active member of the Help for Children Committee of Hope in the Cayman Islands, and a founding member of the Cayman Unit Trustee Working Group.
