Background and experience

Before joining Ogier, Gregory was part of another international law firm's international private client and trust team based in Guernsey, where he specialised in advising on the establishment and ongoing administration of trusts and foundations. A graduate of the University of Exeter, he has also been part of BDB Pitman's private wealth team in London, whilst on secondment to complete his training contract.

Gregory is frequently engaged by clients to design and implement bespoke cross border structures, to restructure existing trusts and to advise trustees in relation to complex matters and disputes.

Gregory is a member of STEP.
