Background and experience

Before joining Ogier, Julien worked in the international tax structuring department at PriceWaterhouseCoopers Luxembourg before moving to the banking and finance team at an international firm based in Luxembourg. While there, Julien expanded his knowledge and experience working as a managing associate in all types of financial transactions involving top tier clients in various matters, including acquisition finance, fund finance and insurance / re-insurance.

At university, Julien specialised in private international law and graduated with a master's degree from the University of Nancy (France) in 2011.

Julien is fluent in French, English, Spanish and German.
