Background and experience

Katie first joined Ogier as a bursary student in 2016 whilst studying her undergraduate law degree. During her three years as a student, she undertook work in all of Ogier's legal departments. Katie re-joined Ogier in 2022 to start the Trainee Solicitor programme to qualify as an English Solicitor.

Katie graduated from the University of Southampton in 2019 with a 2:1 in Law and, following two years of travel, completed the Legal Practice Course online in 2021/2022 with the University of Law, where she focused on private wealth, employment and dispute resolution and achieved an overall commendation.

Katie is currently in her second seat in the dispute resolution team.
