Recognition

"Key Lawyer"

Legal 500 UK, 2025

"We are very grateful for all your advice and input into this which has been instrumental in enabling us to move forward without having to make payments which we all feel are unreasonable and unsupportable."

Client feedback, 2024

"...the advice and support was of a high standard [and] was particularly expeditious and business focused."

Client feedback, 2024

"We engaged Tom to assist with a sensitive and potentially complex AML matter (seeking JFCU consents for certain interlinked actions) and I was delighted with the prompt and attentive service received. Tom's advice was practical and solution focussed and his assistance helped to turn a logistical minefield into a simple pathway where all parties could clearly see the way forward. "

Client feedback, 2023

"I would like to thank both Tom and James for their professional and competent way they dealt with a complex situation following the introduction of ongoing international sanctions. Ogier provided timely practical advice and sought to provide the best solution to a difficult situation, making the process very manageable through good communication and transparency"

Client feedback, 2023

"Tom's assistance was much appreciated, prompt and on point."

Client feedback, 2023

"We needed something on a very urgent basis and although there was not much time for back and forth questions, you delivered"

Client feedback

"A Senior Associate to note...whose broad practice includes handling a range of commercial, cross-border and fraud-related matters"
