Ogier has acted as Jersey legal adviser for Index Ventures in relation to the establishment of their latest fund, Index Ventures VII, which recently closed at €400 million.

Index Ventures VII has already made a number of investments and will continue to invest in equity and equity related investments primarily in private European, United States and Israeli early stage companies.

Niamh Lalor said "The successful fund raising is a ringing endorsement of Index Ventures and is another example of the high calibre of fund managers that choose Jersey to domicile their investment funds. We were delighted to once again be able to assist a long standing client and celebrate the launch of this significant fund for one of Europe's leading European Venture Capital firms in the technology sector."
