

Ogier advises Global Infrastructure Partners on sale of London City Airport

Deals - 01/03/2016

Ogier in Jersey has assisted Slaughter and May in advising US infrastructure investor Global Infrastructure Partners on its sale of London City Airport to a consortium of buyers comprising Ontario Teachers' Pensions Plan Board, Alberta Investment Management Corporation, Borealis Infrastructure and Wren House Infrastructure.

Commenting on the deal Matthew Shaxson said: "We are delighted to have worked with Slaughter and May in advising Global Infrastructure Partners on the successful sale of London City Airport, which comprises the third transaction that we have acted on for GIP within the past few months."

The Ogier team was led by partners Matthew Shaxson and Raulin Amy and assisted by Dilmun Leach (senior associate).
