

Gold awards for two Ogier Power Women

News - 09/02/2017

Ogier's Head of Private Client and Trusts Sally Edwards and Head of Marketing Kate Kirk scooped gold awards at last night's Citywealth Power Women awards.

The ceremony at the Rosewood Hotel in Holborn, London, saw Sally take Woman of the Year: Leadership award in the "Professional Services, IFC" category, while Kate took the "Woman of the Year: Business Services" award.

Sally - referred to in client feedback as directory as "the guru of the Jersey trust world" - leads Ogier's Global Private Client and Trusts team across the Channel Islands, Caribbean and Hong Kong.

Kate leads the firm's global marketing team that last year won awards for both its rebrand and website.

Sally said: "There is a team of dedicated, talented and skilled lawyers in our Private Client and Trusts team, and I'm privileged to lead them. This award reflects the hard work put in by everyone in the team around our jurisdictions."

Kate said: "Our team is growing and we've had a great year building on the success of our rebrand, which clearly differentiates Ogier from the rest of the field.

"I'm very proud that our achievement has been recognised with such a prestigious award. It's also enormously rewarding to be part of a firm that prioritises and invests in supporting business services as well as legal service lines."
