

Powerwomen recognition for Ogier's Katherine Neal

News - 23/02/2018

Ogier counsel Katherine Neal won the silver award for Business Growth Woman of the Year at the Citywealth Powerwomen awards last night.

Katherine has been named in Citywealth's Powerwomen list recognised the 200 most influential women in the private client sphere for the last three years.

She is a counsel in Ogier's Private Client and Trust team, who specialises in advising trustees, settlors and beneficiaries on trusts and foundations, employee benefit trusts and the new Jersey charities law.

Client feedback for Katherine says that she "is able to distil complex legal issues and then present them, in a clear comprehensible fashion to clients and to my staff members of all abilities, without either losing sight of the instruction or the opinion required".

Katherine said: "Recognition in the form of this kind of award is always very welcome, and reflects on another excellent year for the whole Jersey Private Client and Trusts team, which continues to grow and build on a reputation for delivering not just first-class advice, but also first-class service."
