

Cayman funds partner to speak at Ogier-sponsored IBA conference in London

News - 28/02/2018

Questions about the impact of Brexit, and the growth and future of ICOs and cryptocurrency continue to dominate discussion in the offshore funds industry and all are expected to feature heavily at the upcoming IBA conference in London.

Ogier's eight-strong team heading to the event includes Cayman partner Nick Rogers - who will be speaking on a panel on "Key trends relating to digital asset funds", which will address the complex regulatory issues involved in investing and trading in cryptocurrencies

Nick will be joined at the upcoming IBA 19th Annual International Conference on Private Investment Funds by partners Giorgio Subiotto from Ogier's Cayman office, partner Bryon Rees and managing associate Oliver Quarmby from Ogier's Guernsey office, partner Emily Haithwaite and counsel Sophie Reguengo from our Jersey office and partner Francois Pfister from Ogier's Luxembourg office.

The Ogier-sponsored event takes place 11-13 March at the InterContinental Park Lane, London.

CSSF on-site inspections: are you ready?

The Grand-Ducal Regulation of 21 December 2017 entered into force on 1 January 2018. In addition to the expected fee increase for credit institutions, investment funds and regulated markets, it introduces significant changes to the fees charged by the CSSF to authorized AIFMs, UCITS ManCos and professionals of the financial sector. With the CSSF to increase the number of on-site inspections, it is essential that you are prepared.

Managing Associate Marc Lenaers discusses what you need to know in this briefing.

Independent directors on hedge fund and private equity boards - the Cayman trend

It has become an established industry norm to see independent directors appointed to the boards of offshore hedge funds. It is no longer a 'check box exercise' to confirm independent directors have been appointed. Institutional investors are increasingly concerned about the composition of the board, the experience and skill set of its members and the day to day relationship between both the board members themselves and the board and the investment manager.

Partner Joanne Huckle examines the trend in this briefing: Independent directors on hedge fund and private equity boards - the Cayman trend
