

Top-tier ranking for Ogier's "meticulous" Cayman trusts team

News - 03/12/2018

Ogier's 'responsive, meticulous and knowledgeable' Private Client and Trusts team has been promoted to the top tier in the latest Legal 500 guide.

The team led by partners Anthony Partridge and Giorgio Subiotto is praised for its work in a number of areas including establishing sophisticated structures for succession purposes, asset protection and family governance, as well as foundation and private trust companies, offshore relocations and regulatory issues.

The directory also highlights Ogier's Dispute Resolution team's pedigree with trusts disputes, highlighting in particular the work of partner Rachael Reynolds and managing associate Jennifer Fox.

Anthony and Giorgio are named as "Leading Individuals".

Anthony said: "We're delighted to see this tremendous recognition for the team which reflects an outstanding year which has seen a lot of hard work.

"The directory research process is a rigorous one and to have been named in the very top tier of advisers in our area is an accomplishment that we are all very proud of - especially as only four non-contentious trusts practitioners from the entire jurisdiction have been named as leading individuals."
