

International funds team heading to IBA event

News - 06/03/2019

Seven partners from Ogier's international funds team are attending the IBA 20th Annual International Conference on Private Investment Funds 2019.

Ogier is a sponsor of the event which will take place 10-12 March at the InterContinental Park Lane, London. Topics at the two-day conference will include updates on Brexit, marketing funds into the EU and UK-EU structuring, key trends in private equity and hedge funds and current trends in litigation and regulatory actions.

The leading annual funds industry event will bring together legal, business and fund professional from around the globe to analyse the current market and future of private investments funds.

The conference will be attended by partner Nick Rogers from Ogier's Cayman office, partners Craig Cordle and Tim Clipstone from Ogier's Guernsey office, partner Emily Haithwaite from Ogier's Jersey office, partners Francois Pfister and Anne-Gaelle Delabye from Ogier's Luxembourg office and Head of Client Development Bill McGilivray from Ogier's London team.

Ogier is one of the leading international law firms advising on private investment funds. We are regularly ranked top tier by the leading directories and market commentators for our work in this area.
