

Brexit and subscription finance on the agenda at Ogier-sponsored Fund Finance Symposium

News - 12/06/2019

Five partners from Ogier's Banking and Finance team will be at the 5th Annual European Fund Finance Symposium in London this month.

The Ogier-sponsored conference brings together industry experts to debate topics including behind the scenes of Brexit, GP management facilities and subscription finance.

Attending the symposium from Ogier are a team representing three jurisdictions - partners Katrina Edge and partner Mark Santangeli (Cayman) and partner Christopher Jones (Guernsey).

Ogier's European head of Banking and Finance Katrina Edge said: "The European symposium is a fantastic platform for experts to share knowledge and discuss recent trends in the funds finance industry. Ogier has extensive experience in providing legal advice in connection with all aspects of fund finance across our global offices."

The symposium takes place on 20 June at the Landmark Hotel, London.

Please get in touch if you would like to arrange a meeting at or around the event.
