

Ogier "one of the best law firms in the BVI"

News - 20/02/2020

Independent client feedback in the newly published Chambers Global praises Ogier as "one of the best law firms in the BVI", as the firm continues to have the highest number of ranked BVI litigators in the directory.

The Dispute Resolution team has seen strong client feedback including "the standard of their lawyers is extremely high. They do fantastic work" with "brilliant lawyer" Brian Lacy, who heads the team, "tough opponent in court" Nicholas Burkill and Grant Carroll, praised as "particularly good with clients," all ranked. Nicholas Brookes has also joined the list of ranked lawyers in the team as an "associate to watch", and is described as "outstanding", "a real rising star."

BVI Practice Partner and the office's Head of Finance Ray Wearmouth maintains a market-leading reputation, with a retained top-tier ranking and praise for his "specific, clear and definitive answers," while the office's Head of Corporate Michael Killourhy, who is also highly ranked, is described as "the best, most conscientious lawyer you could ask for."

Ray Wearmouth said: "The latest client feedback and our retained position of having the highest number of ranked BVI litigators shows the strength we have across the board and at all levels, and I'm particularly pleased to see the new ranking of Nicholas Brookes.

"To be described as a leading firm in the BVI by our clients is a real honour for us, and I'm pleased to see such a strong performance across our teams recognising the high-value, complex matters we work on."
