

Ogier funds team represented at IBA conference on private investment funds

News - 19/06/2019

Five partners from Ogier's cross-jurisdictional Funds team are attending the IBA 21st Annual International Conference on Private Investment Funds 2020.

Ogier is a sponsor of the event which is taking place on 8 to 10 March at the InterContinental Park Lane, London. The leading annual funds industry event will bring together legal, business and fund professional from around the globe to analyse the current market and future of private investments funds.

Topics at the two-day conference will include impact investing and global regulatory and political trends and there will also be workshops on cross-border marketing issues and key trends in private equity, real estate and other closed-ended funds.

This year's conference will be attended by partner Nick Rogers from Ogier's Cayman office, partners Bryon Rees and Tim Clipstone from our Guernsey office, Jersey partner Emily Haithwaite and partner Anne-Gaëlle Delabye from Ogier's Luxembourg office.

Ogier is one of the leading international law firms advising on private investment funds. We are regularly ranked top tier by the leading directories and market commentators for our work in this area.
