

Banking and Finance and Funds teams welcome senior associate promotions in Luxembourg

News - 02/04/2020

Amid the current global challenges, the team in Ogier's Luxembourg office were able to start April by welcoming the successful career progression of Caleb Holder and Milan Hauber who have both been promoted to senior associate.

Caleb is a key member of the Luxembourg Banking and Finance team with extensive experience in real estate, acquisition finance and fund finance matters. He also advises on debt listings on the Luxembourg Bourse. First admitted in Australia, he started his career with Ogier in our Guernsey office before moving to Luxembourg with his family as part of our internal secondment strategy.

Before joining Ogier in 2019, Milan worked in the investment management team of another international law firm in Luxembourg. Milan is a highly valued member of the Funds team and advises clients on investment funds across a wide range of investment strategies and asset classes. As a German speaker and qualified as Rechtsanwalt, he has been an active force behind our dedicated desk for German-speaking clients.

Luxembourg practice partner said: "I am really pleased that despite the current situation and the difficulties faced in all our jurisdictions that we are still able to recognise individual success and support our people to progress their careers. Both Caleb and Milan bring valuable expertise and knowledge to their teams and their colleagues in all our jurisdictions."
