

Ogier acts on US$400 million offering of common stock

Deals - 30/06/2017

Ogier has acted as Cayman Islands legal counsel on the offering of common stock by a US-based solid waste and recycling company on the New York Stock Exchange and the disposal of interests in the company by our client's affiliate.

Ogier provided advice in respect of the underwriting, custody and lock-up arrangements on the US$400 million offering. Our role in the transaction reflected the team's relationship with the client as a trusted advisor.

Ogier's broad corporate services and expertise together with our commercial focus and flexibility enabled the team, led by partner James Heinicke working with managing associate James Lydeard, to advise the transaction participants as a whole in order to close the transaction smoothly.
