

Ogier advises on private equity investment firm merger

Deals - 19/06/2019

Ogier has advised a European multi-strategy private equity investment firm based in Luxembourg on a complex Euro 830 million merger in which the target company was composed of more than 11 Luxembourg SPVs of different forms (SARL, SA, SCSp).

The transaction involved the setting up of the Luxembourg group of companies, initial private equity acquisitions, an AIFMD analysis, the financing of the main (and then add-on) acquisitions, the implementation of additional debt and equity financing and the drafting of all the related legal documentation.

The Ogier team led by Laurent Thailly, assisted by H el ene Arvis and Sandra Mohand-Oussaid, dealt with the corporate and finance aspects of the transaction. This also included the review/negotiation of the facility agreement and the related security documents.
