News - 07/05/2021

T'sa Hodge has been named Compliance Officer of the Year, for the second consecutive year, at the 2020 Financial Services Awards in the British Virgin Islands.

Held virtually in 2021, with a few select in-person guests, the awards were a celebration of the BVI's top industry partners and a tribute to the resilience of the BVI financial services industry.

"We couldn't be prouder of T'sa to have won this award not just once but twice," said Cueme Parker, senior manager of risk and compliance in Asia and the Caribbean. "This is a testament of T'sa's dedication and hard work, and the quality and support of her wider team. Our focus as a firm is to empower our people to "Be Extraordinary" and T'sa certainly is."

Ogier is known for its commitment to its people. Over the past few years, the company has worked hard to develop an inquisitive, supportive and fun culture and to walk the walk on innovation, continuous talent development and handing autonomy to their people; focusing on tangible things, like flexible working and using the best technology to build a strong, valued and agile team with a truly collaborative approach.

T'sa said: "I am honoured to be voted as Compliance Officer of the Year twice by my industry peers, in the BVI Finance 2020 Financial Services Awards. I would like to extend this award to my fellow compliance officers who worked tirelessly through the global pandemic. Thank you to my family, BVI Association of Compliance Officers (BVIACO), Caribbean Regional Compliance Association (CRCA) Limited, and the Ogier family for their continued support."
