

Property and real estate finance expert Katharine Marshall becomes a partner at Ogier

News - 01/09/2021

Property and real estate finance specialist Katharine Marshall has become a partner at Ogier.

Katharine is part of Ogier's market-leading Property and Local Legal Services team in Jersey, ranked in a league of its own by market commentators Chambers UK.

Katharine is client focused and provides proactive client service levels across a broad range of commercial and residential property matters with a particular focus on institutional lenders lending into Jersey property structures. In addition, Katharine deals with a broad range of commercial transactions and residential development work.

"Katharine has been a valued part of the senior team in Ogier's Jersey Property and Local Legal Services team for the past 10 years," said partner Jonathan Hughes.

Clients and market commentators note Katharine's technical knowledge, approachability and commercial approach. Chambers guide 2021 notes Katharine is 'very responsive and provides clear advice', while Legal 500 2021 report client feedback: "extremely responsive, friendly and positive. She added value in helping get the deal right and finding solutions to the obstacles encountered."
