

Ogier leads offshore with five named in Citywealth Private Client Top 100

News - 16/09/2021

Five of Ogier's market-leading Trusts Advisory Group - Rachael Reynolds QC, Mathew Newman, Bryan De Verneuil-Smith, Damian Evans and Josephine Howe - have been named in the Citywealth Private Client Top 100 list, the greatest number of any offshore firm.

The independently curated list presents the top 100 Private Client Lawyers for 2021 who went above and beyond for their clients during the pandemic.

The new listing is the latest success for Ogier's Trusts Advisory Group, which provides seamless contentious and non-contentious private client support, after they were the only private client team to be ranked top tier for their Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey law offerings in the latest Chambers HNW Guide.

Rachael Reynolds, global senior partner and head of trusts disputes, said: "We're delighted with the team's excellent showing in the Citywealth Private Client Top 100, and are particularly pleased to see our Cayman, Guernsey and Jersey teams represented on the list. We pride ourselves on the growth and international reach of our Private Wealth team. Our investment in this area means we are perfectly positioned to provide a truly global, all time zone service to meet our clients' needs. It is truly rewarding for us to see that commitment to our clients recognised."
