

Cayman Dispute Resolution specialist Shaun Maloney joins the Ogier partnership

News - 02/11/2021

Cayman Dispute Resolution specialist Shaun Maloney has joined the Ogier partnership and will be servicing clients' needs on Cayman law matters from the European timezone.

Shaun has particular expertise in all aspects of section 238 appraisal proceedings emerging from Cayman, Asia and Europe. He has acted on many of the leading cases to be issued in the Cayman courts in the last 5 years including, most recently, the US$8.7 billion privatisation of 58.com, Inc. from the New York Stock Exchange, the largest appraisal proceeding to date.

Shaun also has significant experience in contentious trust matters and insolvency.

Client feedback in the latest Legal 500 directory describes Shaun as 'superb in every aspect. He is a brilliant lawyer, responsive, commercially savvy and great with clients.'

Global head of Dispute Resolution Marc Kish said: "We're delighted that Shaun has joined the Ogier partnership. He has become a leading practitioner in section 238 proceedings, having developed an exceptional industry reputation in this area over the years. Having a subject matter experts located in each of the Caribbean, Asian and European time zones is particularly helpful for our clients given the global nature of such proceedings and Ogier's commitment to providing a joined-up and uninterrupted service from each of our Hong Kong, Jersey, London and Cayman offices."
