

Corporate specialist Cynthia Anandajayasekeram joins the Ogier partnership

News - 08/11/2021

Ogier's Corporate team has welcomed new partner Cynthia Anandajayasekeram, whose practice focuses on public and private mergers and acquisitions, downstream private equity transactions, non-contentious restructurings and corporate governance matters.

Cynthia brings more than a decade of top tier international law firm experience from the Cayman Islands, New York, Sydney and Melbourne to her practice. While previously working at Ogier in the Cayman Islands, Cynthia advised on several high profile matters including Cayman National's response to the tender offer by Republic Bank to acquire up to 74.99% of its issued share capital - the first transaction of its kind in the jurisdiction.

Cynthia has extensive experience representing both corporate and private equity clients across a number of industries including such specialised industries as banking and financial services, asset management, real estate, oil and gas, media, pharmaceuticals, healthcare, logistics and aviation.

Clients have praised Cynthia for her positive "can do" attitude, and describe her as "a real team player, technically excellent, proactive, commercial and calm under fire".

Head of Corporate in the Cayman Islands, Bradley Kruger, said: "We are really excited to welcome back Cynthia. She is technically excellent and has a strong reputation for client service. Not only is she a real asset for the Corporate team but also to the Ogier partnership."
