Real estate finance specialists in Ogier's Banking and Finance team in Jersey have advised Arax Properties and Eurazeo on the acquisition of the Trinity Trading Estate, a highly sought after multi-let trading complex located in South East London.

Ogier's partner Kate McCaffrey worked with global law firm Ashurst LLP. Arax Properties, an independent real estate operating partner with assets in the UK, France and Germany, made the investment alongside JV partner Eurazeo Patrimoine, the real estate division of the listed Eurazeo group.

Kate McCaffrey said: "The Ogier team is delighted to support Arax Properties, Eurazeo Patrimoine and Ashurst in relation to the acquisition and financing of this exciting new investment. It demonstrates that Jersey continues to be a popular jurisdiction for real estate structuring. We wish Arax and Eurazeo every success with this venture."
