

Ogier advises food technology start-up on Series C financing

Deals - 30/11/2021

Ogier has acted as Cayman Islands counsel to Fazenda Futuro Produtos Alimentícios SA and its Cayman Islands parent entity in connection with a further capital raising via the issuance of preference shares in a new Series C financing round.

Fazenda Futuro is a food tech start-up that produces plant-based meat alternatives. The company has about 2,000 points of sale in Brazil and is now successfully expanding into the United States, Europe, and the Middle East. This further successful financing transaction plays a key role in its continued international expansion.

The Ogier team advising on the corporate aspects of the deal included partner Giorgio Subiotto and senior associate Graeme Loarridge.

Giorgio Subiotto stated, "We continue to see an increasingly strong flow of VC investment into Brazilian technology companies and it is great to see Fazenda Futuro being part of that trend. Ogier is excited to be part of this journey and look forward to continuing to work with Fazenda Futuro as the business continues to grow."
