

Ogier in the BVI continues support for Joyce Samuel Primary School with tech donation

News - 29/06/2022

Ogier is delighted to be continuing its support for community partner Joyce Samuel Primary School by providing a 50 inch smart TV, a webcam and a digital projector to enhance the classroom learning experience for students.

Decoy Mactavious, practice manager of Ogier's BVI office, said: "We're delighted to continue to support Joyce Samuel Primary School. Over the years, we have developed a strong relationship and it has been a pleasure seeing it go from strength to strength."

Ogier's support of Joyce Samuel Primary School is the latest step in a relationship that goes back to 2010. Since the beginning of the partnership, the firm has provided resources for literacy and maths programmes, bought laptops and audio-visual equipment, and, following Hurricane Irma in 2017, replaced equipment and was a part-funder for the school's new roof.

Principal Bertie said: "We want to thank Ogier for their continued support to the Hive over the last 12 years. Each donation makes a big impact and it's a delight to see the school and students prosper."
