

Ogier acts on HarbourVest's US$1.2 billion portfolio acquisition

Deals - 28/03/2013

HarbourVest is an independent global private equity firm that invests in venture capital, buyout, mezzanine debt and distressed debt through primary partnerships, secondary purchases and direct investments. HarbourVest Structured Solutions II L.P. is a Guernsey authorised closed-ended investment fund.

The Ogier team was led by Guernsey partner Caroline Chan, with managing associates Andrew Munro and Andy Lowe. The Debevoise team was led by London partners Katherine Ashton and Matthew D Saronson and New York partner David J Schwartz.

Caroline Chan commented: "We have been delighted to work with HarbourVest and their lead advisers Debevoise & Plimpton on HarbourVest's latest project in Guernsey. This has been an interesting transaction involving Ogier lawyers providing fund, regulatory, M&A and financing advice."
