

Ogier advises CPA Global on investment from ICG

Deals - 28/01/2010

The acquisition by ICG was sanctioned on 28 January 2010 by the Royal Court of Jersey pursuant to a scheme of arrangement.

A cross practice group team at Ogier worked on all aspects of the transaction led by Raulin Amy, Business & Trust Law partner, advising on corporate matters and Matthew Thompson, Litigation partner, on all court related matters. They were assisted by Sean Inngs, associate, and Nicola Roberts, senior associate, as well as a corporate administration team led by Jo Freeman, Corporate Services Manager.

Raulin Amy commented:

“Given the complicated nature of the scheme of arrangement and the tight timetable for the various court and shareholder meetings it has been a challenging transaction which has required tremendous efforts on the part of all concerned.

We are delighted to be able to work with a local business such as CPA Global on an important deal like this.”

Ogier worked with lead lawyers DLA Piper and corporate finance advisor BDO in London.
