Two lawyers have been appointed as senior associates in Ogier's Jersey office.

Sevyn Kalsi and Philip Keun have all been promoted today, in the firm's mid-year round of promotions.

Sevyn's practice focuses on private client work and he acts for ultra-high net worth individuals based here and in other jurisdictions, and Philip works in the banking, finance, restructuring and insolvency practice areas, where he has been praised by clients for being "very responsive and very helpful... within short deadlines".

Practice partner Raulin Amy said: "Both of these lawyers very much deserve to step up to senior associate level. They are key members of their teams and all of them have a great future ahead of them at Ogier.

Simultaneous announcements have also been made in the firm's Cayman and Luxembourg offices.
