

Nour Khaleq named Next Gen of the Year at the RISA Cayman awards

News - 15/12/2022

Restructuring and contentious insolvency expert Nour Khaleq has been awarded "Next Gen of the Year" in the annual peer-voted RISA awards.

RISA in the Cayman Islands – the Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association – is a member of INSOL and is the leading professional network of Cayman restructuring and contentious insolvency professionals.

The annual RISA Awards recognise a significant contribution to the insolvency profession of the Cayman Islands.

Nour is part of Ogier's multi-disciplinary Restructuring and Corporate Recovery team. She specialises in corporate restructuring and reorganisation, formal insolvency procedures, negligence and breach of duty claims and statutory remedies. She has experience in advising and acting for creditors, insolvency practitioners and distressed companies in relation to winding up petitions, voidable transactions, asset recovery and liquidator removal applications.

Head of Dispute Resolution in the Cayman Islands Jennifer Fox said: "We're delighted for Nour to receive this thoroughly well-deserved recognition from the restructuring and insolvency practitioner community in Cayman. Nour is a real rising star in the field and we look forward to seeing her continue to go from strength to strength in her career."
