Hat-trick for Ogier at Citywealth IFC Awards

We were delighted to win a hat-trick of awards at the Citywealth IFC Awards last week, scooping best law firm in the Caribbean and Jersey for the second year running, and also named as runner-up in Guernsey.

It is just four months since we were named International Legal Team of the Year by STEP, and to receive more awards that focus on the international offering of our private client and trusts teams reflects the skill and hard work of everyone in the team.

The head of our Guernsey trusts team, partner Gavin Ferguson, was in London last night to collect the awards.

Why every minute counts for Guernsey trustees

As a result of today's climate, in which professional trustees are held to increasingly high standards by regulators, courts and clients alike, the importance of fiduciaries recording their decisions has never been greater.

In this briefing Alice Bricogne underlines the importance of trustee minutes from a Guernsey perspective.
