New probate rules for BVI company owners

Reforms to BVI probate rules have placed more pressure than ever before on practitioners to have their paperwork in proper order for grant applications - the difference in terms of turning around a grant being issued can be from a few months to more than a year if the application is not filed correctly.

This piece by partner Advocate Marcus Leese explains what you need to know and what you need to do: New probate rules for BVI company owners

Investec Trust v Glenalla: implications for Trusts (Jersey) Law

A recent appeal against a decision of the Guernsey Court of Appeal raised points of general public importance regarding the interpretation of articles 26 and 32 of the Trusts (Jersey) Law 1984 (TJL).

Embracing change - a critical element to Guernsey's success

“Global news coverage like the Panama Papers has also made some US clients assess jurisdictions more stringently for disclosure, tax compliance and quality trusteeship and that has helped Guernsey win work.”

That's the view of Guernsey practice partner Advocate Marcus Leese in Citywealth's most recent report on Guernsey.
