

Six of Ogier's Trust Advisory Group experts named in the Private Client Global Elite 2018

Insights - 23/07/2018

Six of Ogier's Trust Advisory Group experts have been named in the Private Client Global Elite 2018.

Sally Edwards, Gavin Ferguson and Steve Meiklejohn from Ogier's Private Wealth team are included in the list, along with contentious trusts specialists Simon Davies, Edward Mackereth and Rachael Reynolds from the Dispute Resolution team.

Edward is the firm's Global Managing Partner and Steve is Global Senior Partner.

All six are members of Ogier's world-leading Trusts Advisory Group, which draws together contentious and non-contentious trust practitioners, and was most recently named International Team of the Year 2017/18 by STEP.

As part of Ogier's Private Client and Trusts team, Sally, Gavin and Steve advise trustees, private banks and ultra-high net worth clients on the lifecycle of trusts from establishment, restructuring and administration to succession planning.

As Dispute Resolution specialists, Simon, Edward and Rachael have a particularly strong track record, having successfully acted in many of the headline international trust and private client matters in recent years in Guernsey, Jersey and Cayman.

Sally said: "The strength of our team is in the quality and breadth of experience of our lawyers. We have in-depth knowledge of trusts and foundations, enabling us to provide flexible and practical guidance on choosing the most effective jurisdiction – so we are pleased that private client specialists spanning our Jersey, Guernsey and Cayman teams have been recognised in the Private Client Global Elite."

The Private Client Global Elite is an independent directory listing 250 leading practitioners in the trusts and private client world. Inclusion on the list is determined by the number of nominations an individual receives from peers, the depth and breadth of their experience and the number and quality of international nominations outside of the entrant's home jurisdiction.
