In your court: offshore dispute resolution review July 2018

Successful application to remove a trustee of two Guernsey law trusts

Gavin Ferguson, Alice Bricogne and Sandie Lyne successfully acted in a case involving the removal of a professional trustee following the resignation of all of its directors (leaving two Guernsey trusts effectively paralysed) and the appointment of a local trust company as trustee in its place. The provisions of the two trust instruments were such that it was not possible either to remove the trustee or to appoint a new one without the assistance of the Guernsey Court.
