In Your Court: Offshore Dispute Resolution Review - July 2019

The recent INSOL Channel Islands seminar last month saw a record turn-out of over 150 restructuring and insolvency practitioners to discuss major topics impacting our industry, from the future of audit to the interaction of new asset classes with the law.

Our lead editorial this edition, from Mathew Newman and Bruce MacNeil who both attended the seminar, takes an in-depth look at the issues raised and key takeaways for practitioners. Read it here.

At the end of July, the Chief Justice of the Cayman Islands confirmed and expanded upon the 'standard directions' in section 238 proceedings. Read our briefing here.

We were delighted to be named offshore law firm of the year at the Lawyer awards - our third major industry award in just three months. The good news doesn't stop there - we are pleased to announce the promotions of Grant Carroll to partner in our BVI team, the promotion of James Angus to managing associate in our Jersey team, the promotion of Edwin Gomez to senior associate in our Hong Kong team. We also welcome the arrivals of former Financial Conduct Authority lawyer, senior associate Daniel Maine, in our Jersey team and associate Bryan Little in our Cayman Islands team.

Ogier in Cayman advises on Cayman law aspects of a successful jurisdiction challenge

Ogier's Cayman dispute resolution team, led by partner Rachael Reynolds, has advised the Cayman Islands company Lands Company Limited on its successful jurisdiction challenge in the English Commercial Court over a US$200 million claim brought against Lands (and other defendants, including J.P. Morgan Markets Limited) by the Libyan Investment Authority. This relates to a $200 million derivative transaction entered into by the LIA in November 2007.
