

The 2019 Insolvency Litigation Conference at the Grange Fitzrovia Hotel in London will bring attendees together from insolvency, restructuring and turnaround disciplines from all over the UK, providing debate, discussion and valuable networking.

This year's agenda will focus on a number of timely and relevant topics from experienced QCs, lead juniors and partner level solicitors.

Ogier partner Mathew Newman will be speaking on the impact of cross border insolvency and restructuring after Brexit.

Also attending is counsel Alex Horsbrugh-Porter.

Please get in touch with either Mathew or Alex if you would like to arrange a meeting.
