

Global Fund Media hosts HedgeWeek LIVE, a three day virtual conference designed specifically for new fund managers seeking guidance on the critical steps involved in successfully bringing a hedge fund to market.

On day one, Cayman Managing Partner James Bergstrom joins a panel of industry experts for a discussion on Legal and Fund Structures. The panel will provide insight on all the key planning points for pre-launch and post-launch phases which can potentially make the difference between success and costly failure.