

AFME's European Leveraged Finance Conference (formerly known as the High Yield Conference) is taking place over 2 days with a virtual programme - partners Bruce MacNeil and Paul Chanter will be attending.

The agenda includes discussions of matters related to leveraged loans and in addition to panels and session directly related to high-yield, there are sessions on Covid-19 impact, Sustainable Finance/ ESG financing, developments related to NPLs and what's in the pipeline for CLOs. The conference also provides the opportunity to hear about relevant regulatory developments that may be on the horizon.

Don't hesitate to get in touch with Bruce or Paul if you would like arrange a meeting.
