

Ogier is a sponsor for the hedgeweekLIVE North America Emerging Managers Summit.

Partner Justin Savage joins the day one panel on Legal & Fund Structuring to discuss the main considerations for start-ups and emerging fund managers. Topics will include:

- What are the main offshore structuring considerations for US manage when setting up offshore alternative fund vehicles?
- What should one prioritise when putting together the Offering Memorandum and Investment Management Agreement?
- Recent developments and future challenges: potential legal headwinds for hedge funds
- Management company considerations - defining the economic interests of the partners
- How best to prepare for SEC registration and navigate the regulatory landscape in 2021

If you would like to connect with Justin, please do via the details provided on the right.

Additional details on the virtual conference can be found here.