

Partner Benoît Rose, counsel Virginie Gonella and associate Natalia Szumlakowska will be attending the ALFI Private Equity and Real Estate conference on 30 November and 1 December 2021.

The conference will explain what investors can expect from alternative funds in post-pandemic economies in Europe and beyond and know if the outlook for private markets is different from public markets and why.

If you are also interested in attending this event, please click here for further information.