

After five decades, AIJA will gather in the Middle East for its 2021 Half-Year November Conference.

As the world re-opens and moves towards the new normal and emerging new trends, the conference will feature three tracks with multiple sessions running in parallel:

1. International disputes 2021: Tackling new challenges resolving disputes in the post-Covid world
2. Managing global challenges - delivering legal solutions in disruptive times
3. Labour Law Challenges in a World of Accelerated Change

Ogier Partner Jennifer Fox will join a panel of experts during Track 1 of the conference. The panel topic is "Brave New Insolvency World - The new GCC insolvency laws and how they facilitate fraud and asset recovery claims".

If you would like to connect with Jennifer during her trip to Dubai, please get in touch via the details provided on the right.
