

The pandemic has shaped the landscape of arbitration around the world with hearings being conducted remotely as opposed to physical hearings.

Ogier Partner and Chair of the BVI Arbitration Group, Nicholas Burkill will moderate a discussion hosted by the BVI International Arbitration Centre in conjunction with the BVI Arbitration Group, “Arbitration post pandemic: out of adversity comes an opportunity? The rise of offshore arbitration centres” on 23 November 2021.

He joins an esteemed panel of speakers comprising, Rt. Hon. Dame Elizabeth Gloster of One Essex Court, Natalie Reid and Maxim Osadchiy of Debevoise & Plimpton, Vivek Kapoor of 39 Essex Chambers, Francois Lassalle of the BVI IAC, who will discuss:

- the pros and cons of remote hearings,
- the effect on enforceability of the awards, and
- lessons learned for the future of international arbitration.
