

Ogier Partner Grant Carroll will be attending the 19th ICC Miami Conference on International Arbitration "Latam arbitration under scrutiny: a challenge to legitimacy".

The conference will feature experts in the field as well as representatives from the ICC International Court of Arbitration, all on hand to engage with professionals wanting to keep pace with the latest developments.

If you would like to connect with Grant in Miami, please reach out via the details provided on the right.

Details on conference registration can be found here.