

Tervinder Chal, Managing Director at Ogier Global in Singapore will be speaking at the AIMA Singapore Annual Forum, which will be held from 8.30am to 6.00pm on Thursday 21st April at the Sofitel Singapore City Centre. The event, which will be AIMA's first in-person forum since 2019, aims to bring together policy and regulatory bodies, hedge fund and alternative investment managers, industry professionals, and thought leaders to share insights and reflections on the industry.

Tervinder will be participating in the fifth panel session of the day, titled ESG: Making Money, Doing Good, which will take place between 3.30pm - 4.30pm. The panel will discuss wide ESG trends, talk about data challenges in trying to create a standardised ESG framework and see how Asia is following the footsteps of Europe in sustainable investment regulation and TCFD disclosure.
